

Coquille Indian Tribe
TRIBAL COUNCIL WORKSHOP
THE STATE OF TRIBAL HEALTH CARE COSTS
July 24, 2009, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Tribal Administration Building

Audience: Open to all Tribal members, staff and invited guests

Facilitator: Gary Leva, Gary Consulting Group

Objective: To gather information and raise awareness about the growth of Tribal health care costs and discuss concerns about future sustainability

AGENDA

A. Review the Council's vision for Tribal health care

- Nasomah
- Contract Health Services
- Health care trust fund

B. Review Nasomah's costs and trends

- Cost growth
- Factors contributing to cost growth
- Changes in benefits and services
- Comparison of benefits and premiums to other health insurance options
- Cost projections

C. Review Contract Health Service's costs and trends

- Cost growth
- Factors contributing to cost growth
- Changes in benefits and services
- Comparison of benefits to other health insurance options
- Cost projections

Lunch Break

D. Discussion, questions and comments

- Based on the morning's discussion, identify major areas of concern
- Prioritize issues identified and provide focus for future efforts and resources
- Establish a process and timeline for follow-up or next steps

---

All information presented at the workshop will be communicated to Tribal members upon request, including hand-out materials and meeting minutes.